Terms and Conditions

ENTRY CRITERIA

Entry is free but all contestants must be NZ residents and be enrolled and attend a school for at least 15 hours per week. If you leave school during the competition your song will be disqualified.

Only one song per student/group is to be entered. Performers may or may not be the composer/s.

Songs may be collaborative but all writers must be acknowledged.

All contestants must be no older than 19 years of age on May 1st 2012.

The competition is for unsigned bands and individuals only. No student/group may sign a recording contract prior to or during the competition without prior consent from the competition organisers at the NZMC.

PURPOSE

The song competition seeks to find an appealing new song/waiata, which will be sung by School and Community groups during New Zealand Music Month 2012, and on the 31st May as part of 'Hook Line and Sing-along' and beyond.

THEME

Write a song as a New Zealander – write one that other New Zealanders would want to sing. It's theme could be personal, universal, literal, surreal etc.

All musical styles will be accepted but note the purpose of the competition as mentioned above.

The JUDGES

The competition will be judged by a panel of well-known New Zealand song-writers, a representative of MENZA and a previous competition winner chosen by the NZ Music Commission.

The judge's decisions will be final.

CRITERIA used for Judging:

The winning song will be judged on the following criteria:

- The general appeal of the song
- The length of the song: Aim between 2 and 4 minutes.
- Its 'sing-ability' and potential for 'Hook Line and Sing-along'

LYRICS

- Must be something that a New Zealander would be likely to sing about
- Need to be easy to understand on the recording
- A good flow (arrangement of words per line of music)
- Rhyming is optional
- A lyric sheet must be provided
- Te Reo Maori and other New Zealand languages are encouraged and welcomed (with translations provided in English)

MUSIC

- Standard of musical composition and its components: Intro, verse, chorus, hook, solo, and outro.
- Song melody and rhythmic content of the lyrics
- Dynamics (loud and soft variations)
- Backing vocals/harmonies (optional)

PERFORMANCE

- A good sound quality
- Clarity of singing/speaking
- Musical instruments well played, accuracy in timing and notes
- Integrity of the piece as a whole (style of music and lyrics should match)

PRIZES

The winning song will receive: a cash prize of $500 for their school for music resources, workshops from one of the NZ MUSIC Commission “Musicians Mentoring in Schools” team, a prize to the value of $500 for the composer(s), NZMM goodie bags, chances for you to play your song live on the 31st May – events t.b.c.

(The 2010 winners played their song with OPSHOP on MAY 1)

If you miss out on the big prize there will also be prizes for the top ten entries.
